Process to Resolve IL-TRM Policy Issues

1. The IL TRM Administrator (VEIC) plans to introduce policy issues at the Tuesday, May 13 TRM Technical Advisory Committee meeting
2. Monday, June 16 Large Group SAG Meeting: VEIC presents policy issues and requests feedback
 - a. Written comments due by Monday, June 30
3. Wednesday, July 9: Small group SAG meeting to discuss written feedback
4. Wednesday, July 21: Small group SAG meeting to discuss written feedback
5. Goal is to resolve policy issues before the IL-TRM August 1 deliverable

SAG Steering Committee

- Purpose:
 - To provide substantive feedback to the SAG Facilitator on: (1) annual SAG Plans; and (2) progress towards meeting annual SAG Plan goals to ensure that the time spent on SAG is as productive and valuable as possible
 - Steering Committee launched in mid-2018
- Meetings:
 - Holds an annual meeting to review the SAG Plan for the upcoming year, and a mid-year check-in on progress towards meeting SAG Plan goals (if needed)
- Membership is defined by Section 3.3 of the IL EE Policy Manual: Members of the SAG Steering Committee include senior representatives of Program Administrators, community-based organizations, and non-financially interested stakeholder participants.
 - The Steering Committee includes representatives from each utility, and non-financially interested stakeholder organizations that signed 2022-2025 or 2026-2029 EE Plan stipulation agreements
- Request for Members: If you represent a community-based organization or a non-financially interested stakeholder and are interested in joining the Steering Committee, reach out to the SAG Facilitator.

Abigail Miner: I wanted to check in on the list of items VEIC identified as policy issues, as we discussed you would look at that. Have you looked?

- Celia Johnson: I will review them before the TRM meeting tomorrow. It will be very high-level, so there is still time for VEIC to follow up on these items. If needed, we can add any other policy issues to the agenda for the June 16th meeting.

Elder Calderon: Regarding policy discussions on SAG issues, do you have a timeline for process resolutions? The TRM needs to be finalized in September. When does consensus need to be reached, and what happens if it is not?

- Celia Johnson: VEIC requests that we resolve the policy issues by August 1st, but the TRM does not need to be finalized until early September. The final TRM will be filed with the Commission by October 1st, but a final deliverable will be circulated in the first week of September to check for [minor] errors or corrections. There is a specific procedure in the TRM policy document that will be followed in the absence of consensus. The TRM consensus process is different than the SAG consensus process. When there is not consensus in the TRM process, the IL-TRM Administrator makes a decision on what is included in the TRM, and that can be challenged in the TRM approval docket.
- Keith Cronin: The TRM policy document will have all details regarding non-consensus. It's important to decide on these policy issues quickly and into the TRM as early as possible, as there will likely be pertinent technical work for some measures. We will do our best to include these technical measures into the August 1st deliverable, but it will take time.

Zach Ross: It's worth noting that Ameren has a luminaire level lighting control Market Transformation initiative relevant to this working group. I'm sure this will be covered in the Market Transformation Working Group, but I wanted to share the update to this group as well.

- Celia Johnson: We have flagged this for the Market Transformation Working Group but thank you for noting.

Fernando Morales: Considering the success of this working group, seeing how savings have ramped up, and how network lighting controls have been included in the 2026 EE plan, it seems this Subcommittee has completed its goals. Regular meetings may not be necessary, and we could potentially do away with this group.

- Houston DOWEN: From an external POV, I echo Fernando's thoughts.

Abbi Miner: Can you explain the difference between a working group and a subcommittee?

- Celia Johnson: Yes, typically a subcommittee addresses longer term issues (like policy manual processes), which are then closed with the potential to be re-opened in the future as necessary. Some groups resulted due to stipulation language. Reporting working groups are ongoing and discuss shorter-term issues such as market transformation.

- Abigail Miner: The differences aren't easily defined.
- Celia Johnson: There is a definition in the Policy Manual that gives "subcommittees" and "working groups" slight differences. We can think about calling them something else in the future.

Feedback on 2024 SAG Planning Process

Celia Johnson, Facilitator

Background

- 2024 focused on the SAG Portfolio Planning Process, with the objective of reaching consensus on Illinois utility EE Portfolio Plans for 2026-2029 prior to utilities filing EE Plans for approval with the ICC
- Large Group SAG Planning Process – Jan. to Nov. 2024
 - Overview of the Planning Process presented in January
 - Utilities presented “deep dive” overviews of current EE Portfolios in February
 - Energy Efficiency ideas were submitted by interested SAG participants in March, and presented in April
 - Each utility presented a draft EE Plan overview to SAG in the fall, with an opportunity for any SAG participant to present feedback
- Collecting Feedback
- SAG Facilitator has held 9 meetings to discuss initial feedback on the 2024 SAG Planning Process, including:
 - Utilities
 - Non-financially interested stakeholders that participated in negotiations
 - IQ South Advisory Committee Facilitator
 - SAG Steering Committee
- Slides 28-30 include a summary of key feedback about the 2024 Large Group SAG Planning Process and suggestions to consider for a future SAG Planning Process
 - Feedback and suggestions are shared without attribution

- Feedback about the negotiation process was discussed with parties that participated in negotiations, and will not be summarized today
- Based on current law, the next 4-year EE Plans will be filed March 1, 2029; a future Planning Process would occur in 2028

Summary of Initial Feedback on 2024 SAG Planning Process

1. General Process Feedback

- Process was well organized, with information clearly communicated and useful templates provided.
- The Planning Process schedule flowchart was useful; consider an online tool to edit the flowchart as it changes, with a dedicated page for meeting dates.

2. Planning Process Timeline

- Additional time is needed – start the process earlier, in order to end earlier. Kick-off a future process at least 18 months before the statutory EE Plan filing deadline.

3. Participation

- Holding a Large Group SAG meeting in-person for EE Plan presentations was useful.
- Plan and consider up-front how to ensure process includes an opportunity for Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) and Community Action Agencies (CAAs) to provide meaningful input, without being required to participate in a large number of meetings due to time and resource constraints.
- Request process feedback from stakeholders that submitted EE Ideas in March 2024.
- Clarify the role of ICC Staff and the ICC Office of General Counsel at the beginning of a future Planning Process.

4. Energy Efficiency Ideas Process

- Collaboration on Energy Efficiency Idea submittals was appreciated; it was useful to have joint ideas submitted.
- Submitted ideas were not overly duplicative, which was appreciated.
- There were a smaller number of ideas submitted in 2024 vs. the 2020 process, which was more manageable.
- Include normative values with EE Idea proposals whenever possible (for example – if the proposal is a about an increase of dollar amount, include the actual amount).

5. Utility EE Plan Presentations to SAG

- Utilities should present draft EE Plans earlier.
- Utilities should include additional details in draft EE Plan presentations, instead of focusing on high level information
 - What measures are included in each program for the 4-year EE Plan
 - Administrative spending, including a budget breakdown
 - Program budgets and savings associated with specific programs
 - Consider sharing summary tables with draft EE Plan presentations

Next Steps

- Interested SAG participants are invited to share feedback about the 2024 SAG Planning Process:
 - Click here to respond to the 2024 SAG Planning Process survey

- The survey includes an option to request a meeting with the SAG Facilitator to discuss feedback
 - Please respond to the survey by Wednesday, May 28
- A final summary of feedback on the 2024 SAG Planning Process will be posted on the SAG website, circulated to the SAG Steering Committee, and considered in planning for a future process
